Dear Valued Customer:

Thanks for a great show!

GSA's International Products and Services Expo 2000 in San Diego was a huge success. Thanks to you it was our largest customer outreach event in GSA's history.

The quarter million square feet of exhibit space was full of exciting products and services offered by 585 of GSA's premier commercial partners. Over 80 of the exhibitors were our IT commercial partners.

The conference program offered 90+ hours of invaluable training to provide new tools and techniques to help our customers meet the needs of today and face the challenges of tomorrow.

Thanks again for making the show a success. Don't forget to check out future editions of Marketips for information about our Expo in 2001. For more information about our many commercial products and services, please visit our website at www.fss.gsa.gov.

Sincerely,

Frank P. Pugliese, Jr.
Commissioner
